VOL. III. NO. 142.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, JUNE 15, 1897.

PRICE, 5 CTS

BABE MURPHY'S DEFEAT.

Followers of form and favorite players got one of those good old blows that killed father at Ingalls Park yesterday. Babe Murphy was in the fourth race and associated with an inferior lot. She looked all over the best thing of the day. The mare had Hugh Penny up and despite the heavy play on her went back in the betting from 4 to 5 to even money. His Brother was the one selected to beat Ezell's mare and played around 4 to 1.

Penny got Babe Murphy cut off on the first turn and she was last swinging into the back stretch. The game little mare was full of ambition though, and picking her horses up one at a time, was second when straightened out for home and at the eighth pole seemed to be going the easiest. Penny, however, made a weak effort on her in the final furlong and she was beaten a head by His Brother, on whom Caywood rode an excellent race.

B. J. Johnston's Marie Woodlands won the last race in a sensational way. She got away poorly and was last to the stretch turn, where Dorsey, with keen judgment, brought her up to the rails, saved ground and got to his field. The mare made a show of the lot then and won easily from Lon Jones and C H Whelan.

The first race gave a reverse blow to the eminent firm of racing scientists, Lieut. Roller, Epicure Coulter and Farmer Leigh. The Lieutenant gave it out early that Coulter should win with Kate Fisher. Coulter was satisfied and after a conference with Leigh they so decided that it should be. Kate overthrew them. Off last, she sauntered in the wake of action all the way.

But the sages evened matters up in the second race. Official seemed to be in clover. Yet he opened at 4 to 5. They almost backed him off the boards. McHugh got him off flying and after a little hustling to shake off The Cheat in the stretch, the colt won rather handily.

The third race was pretty well scratched up and Percy was the favorite. He had Clay up, and won all the way. Once more Lieut. Roller was made happy and promoted to a captaincy. It was a bright, clean day, and a crowd of 2,500 was out.

Leo Kline drew in to book and had a winning day.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Halma is said to be a sure starter in the Suburban. In commenting on his race of Wednesday out of which the colt came in good order the New York Sun says: "The Fleischmanns gave $27,000 to Byron McClelland two years ago for Halma, and yesterday was the first time almost since he became their property that he sported silk." Of course this is misinformation. The price was less than $27,000 and in the Fleischmann colors and for the Fleischmanns Halma won $7,070 in 1895; the Latonia Derby $5,720 and $356 in the Himyar Stakes.

Those noble buyers, the Fleischmanns, are said to have offered some $3,000 each for all the Thompson horses in training, the brothers having announced that they would sell out and retire from active racing. The Thompsons have declined the offer, holding Requitat at $25,000 and L'Alonette, Sagacity and Elkins at $10,000 each.

The good Belmont colt Octagon leans toward villainy. John Hyland ran him in blinkers for the Brooklyn Derby of last Thursday—one of the handsomest races of the season.

Scottish Chieftain is an extra long strider and in at least two of his races on soft ground has slipped and sprawled into defeat.

Voter is one of the most reliable colts in training. He is perhaps a bit better in the mud than on hard going.

Riley Grannan scored for about $15,000 over Paul Kauvar's win at Brooklyn last Tuesday.

St. Bartholomew was palpably lame after his dead heat with Wolhurst last Tuesday.

Jockey Hart has engaged to ride for H. T. Griffin the balance of the season.

Frank Harris has been declared out of the Suburban Handicap.

Craig got him through a small hole at the head of the stretch. Weola made a strong bid on the stretch turn. She seemed to be winning but died away at the end. Laredo ran a good race. Terrific was interfered with several times. Kate Fisher got away badly and did not have a bit of speed. Overweights—Terrific, 2 pounds; Tenole, 2.

Winner—B. c, by Inspector B—Margo. Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won with something left after an early drive. Official is a good game colt. The Cheat seemed to have him beat at the head of the stretch but he came on like a gentleman when urged. The Cheat weakened in the final pinch. Miss Kinbello had a lot of speed and used it in trying to kill off Official. Jay Bird is of no account. Ideal Beau ran a fair race.

The mare is real good right now and can win her next out. Evanatus was bumped into and almost thrown over the fence on the back stretch. His Brother ran a good race and was ridden well, too. Onalaska had a stormy passage, but ran a good race. Watch him. Tony Honing did well as far as he went. Scratched—La Crescent, 110; Ed. Overlook, 88. Overweights—Olivia L, 2 pounds.

Winner—Ch. m. 5, by Woodlands—Marie Foster. Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily after an early drive for position; second, third and fourth hard at it. Marie Woodlands was pounds the best. She was best ridden too. The mare was interfered with at the start and never got into her stride until the stretch was reached. Michael McInerney was interfered with often. With clear sailing he would have been second. Rosa A had a lot of speed but used it in the wrong places. Dad's Daughter also showed early speed. Tramp was in his own way. It was a bad lot. Scratched—Mollie King, 107. Overweights—Mr. Dayton, 4 pounds; Cerita, 3.
